Who We Are

International Humanity Foundation is a non-religious, non-political, non-profit volunteer organization providing the world's poor with basic humanitarian aid while preserving their cultures, traditions and beliefs.

Education is the cornerstone of IHF; half of our mission is to educate the poor, while the other half is to educate the world about the poor. We create lasting relationships that are a learning experience for both those we help and the volunteers who help them. We strive to provide information about global poverty with the goal of creating a society better prepared for effective problem solving.

IHF policies and programs are firmly rooted in a "pass it on" philosophy. By passing on the exchange of ideas and knowledge through direct communication with others, we encourage the development of thoughtful, informed leaders for tomorrow.

Volunteer Opportunities

Consider a volunteer opportunity with International Humanity Foundation after graduation or during the summer break. Volunteer at one of our orphanage/ Safe Homes in Indonesia, Thailand or Kenya. You'll be able to teach English, mathematics or computer skills to children and young adults eager to learn.

Take advantage of this excellent opportunity to be immersed in a foreign culture and pass on the benefit of your own education to those who can benefit the most. For just $50USD a week, we'll provide you with lodging and three meals a day at the center. Visit us online today, at www.ihfonline.org or email us at volunteering@ihfonline.org for more details.

Use your education. Experience new cultures. Share yourself with the world.

IHF is a registered 501(c)(3) Non-Profit Foundation in the United States.
